Çdo të dielë në orën 11:30 Rruzarja dhe Mesha Shenjte

Lutja bën Krishtin të pranishëm

10 Shtator 2017

Në atë kohë, Jezusi u tha nxënësve të vet: “Në qoftë se vëllai yt mëkaton kundër teje, qortoje vetëm për vetëm. Në qoftë se të dëgjon, e shpëtove vëllanë tënd. Po qe se nuk të dëgjon, merre me vete edhe një ose dy njerëz të therë, që çdo gjë të mbështetet në pohimin e dy ose tre dëshmitarëve. Në qoftë se as ata nuk i dëgjon, tregoj Kishës. Nëse as Kishën nuk e dëgjon, mbaje si të ishte pagan ose tagrambledhës.

Përnjëmend po ju them: çdo gjë që ju të lidhni përmbi tokë, do të jetë e lidhur edhe në qiell, dhe çdo gjë që ju të zgjidhni mbi tokë, do të jetë e zgjidhur edhe në qiell.

Prapë po ju them: nëse dy vetë prej jush këtu mbi tokë, të një mendimi, luten për çfarëdo sendi, Ati im që është në qiell do t’ua japë. Sepse ku janë dy ose tre të bashkuar në emrin tim, aty jam edhe unë, midis tyre.” Mt 18, 15-20

Pope Francis @Pontifex

Truth is an inseparable companion of justice and mercy.

Why non-Catholics cannot receive Holy Communion

Communion is a statement of faith

The Church has always been clear that at Mass the bread and wine literally become the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. They may still have the appearance and taste of bread and wine, but they have truly and substantially changed. When Our Lord says at the Last Supper “This is my body...” we take Him at His word.

If someone doesn’t believe Christ is truly present in the Eucharist, or is in a state of grave sin, it would be disrespectful (to put it mildly) to receive His Body and Blood.

It shows you are part of the Church

When a Catholic receives Communion, they show they are a member of the wider Catholic community – literally “in communion” with the Church. It would therefore make no sense for a non-Catholic to take Communion.

As the bishops of England and Wales say: “Normally when people receive Holy Communion at a Catholic celebration of Mass, they should be saying: ‘We are in full communion with the Catholic Church, united with the bishop of this local community and with the Pope.’”

Receiving Communion unworthily is dangerous

Another reason that non-Catholics cannot receive Communion is for their own good. Scripture warns what happens when people who are not worthy to receive the Body and Blood of Christ try to do so.

“For any one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself. That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died.” (1 Cor 11:29–30) Therefore, a non-Catholic who receives Communion endangers their own spiritual (and potentially physical) health.

Exceptional circumstances

There are some very rare instances where non-Catholics may receive Communion, but they only apply to baptised Christians in emergency situations who show they truly believe Church teaching.

It is unlikely these conditions applied in Corbyn’s case.

No doubt, Jeremy Corbyn was well intentioned if he did receive Communion, and did so out of naivety rather than malice. Hopefully, he will learn something about Church teaching and Catholic belief from the reaction.

In the meantime, if he does want to receive Communion, there’s only one thing he can do – become a Catholic.
